Bookings By Week- This report lists each week for the current year and previous 4 years and is based on the reservation date. A reservation with an arrival date of 6/7/07 but a reservation date of 1/8/07 will show in week 1 (based on the reservation date). There are 3 sections, Weeks, Reservations and Nights.

The Weeks section is the number of weeks booked. A reservation for 10 days is considered 1 week but a reservation for 11 days is considered 2 weeks. The Reservation section is the number of reservations booked in that week and the Nights section is the number of nights booked for that week.

Week 1 starts with the first Saturday in January which means that a reservation made the first Friday in January will be considered week 53 of the previous year. This report does not include owner reservations, maintenance day reservations, cancelled reservations or reservations with 0 nights booked.
